

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP FORM – 2012

The Canberra Archaeological Society was formed in 1963 to cater for the needs of all people interested in archaeology.

Monthly meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month (Feb to Nov) at the Australian National University, usually in Room 6 of the Manning Clarke Centre at 7:00pm. Guest speakers talk on a range of topics from Australasian to historical archaeology and classical studies.

Members receive our monthly newsletter, Old News, and also have the opportunity to go on fieldtrips. No experience is necessary. We place an emphasis on enthusiasm and enjoyment!
