

ACT Historical Archaeology Workshop

The Ruins of History

Saturday 3 July, 9am - 4.30pm

Lecture room, Level C, Building 7- University of Canberra

Time	Topic	Presenter
0900	Registration and mingling with coffee
0915	Introduction of the sponsors and the proceedings	Helen Cooke/Tracy Ireland
0930 – 1000	Ploughlands in the ACT-obscure but cute.	Michael Pearson
1000 – 1030	The Revival of Rock Valley, Tidbinbilla	Juliet Ramsay
1030 - 1100	Morning tea
1100- 1130	The Ruins of Hosity: The Captains Flat Weigh Station.	Elizabeth Estbergs
1130 - 1200	Robertson Cottage – Oaks Estate.	Karen Williams
1200 - 1300	Lunch
1300 - 1330	Conservation of objects from the Joint Operations Command , Defence site excavation	Celia Cramer
1330 - 1400	Belconnen Naval Transmitting Station – A history to be ruined or saved?	Peter Dowling
1400-1430	Afternoon tea
1430 - 1500	The History of Ruins – hoping to involve people/government in site conservation and interpretation.	Helen Cooke
1500-1530	Workshop discussion: How can we help to protect and promote our historic heritage	All participants
1530 - whenever	Drinks, nibbles and more mingling

NATIONAL TRUST

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Institute for Professional Practice
In Heritage and the Arts

